

Six-Year-Old Flubs Second Attempt To Leave Hospital

A six-year-old Torrance girl, who has been spending more of her time at the Orthopaedic Hospital than at home during the past four years, is back in her hospital bed after the second unsuccessful attempt in a month to get safely from the hospital portals to her own front door.

Pretty Patricia Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Boyd of 513 E. Double St., who has been undergoing treatment for a congenital hip disorder since she was two years old, thought she was leaving her hospital life behind for awhile when she checked out several days ago and drove off with her mother, headed for home, family and friends. En route, their car was hit by a truck. MRS. BOYD received multiple bruises, and Patricia landed back in the hospital with a fractured leg.

Only a month earlier, while leaving the hospital after a clinic visit, Patricia slipped in the parking lot and was hospitalized with a cut eye.

A veteran of five hip operations and several cast treatments, Patricia has been advised by specialists that barring further accidents she will be able to lead a normal active life soon.

She is one of the 75,000 handicapped youngsters of the Southland cared for at Orthopaedic Hospital, which is cur-

Art Group To Meet

The Torrance Art Group will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Dr. Arthur Schneider, 230 40th St., Manhattan Beach, with Jim Crump as co-host.
